

Paediatrician graduated from the Universidad de Buenos Aires (U.B.A), Argentina. Completed a 4-year paediatric residency at Hospital de Pediatría 'Prof. Dr. Juan P. Garrahan' (Ciudad Autónoma de Buenos Aires, Argentina) gaining an advanced understanding of managing and treatment of complex pathologies.

Currently finishing a 3-year Post-basic Residency in Paediatric Immunology at the Hospital de Niños 'Dr. Ricardo Gutierrez' (Ciudad Autónoma de Buenos Aires, Argentina) focuses on the diagnosis, management, treatment and follow-up of Primary Immunodeficiencies (PID) patients. Also, part of the Center of Clinical Immunology 'Dra. Bezrodnik' (Ciudad Autónoma de Buenos Aires, Argentina) where she is committed to the attention of patients with suspected or diagnosed PID.

Member of the European Society for Immunodeficiencies and Latin American Society for Immunodeficiencies, with active participation in the society's activities. Also, chosen to serve as a delegate in the Junior Committee of the Latin American Society for Immunodeficiencies for the period of 2024-2026.

Nowadays, having 6-months of experience in Haematopoietic Stem Cell Transplant (HSCT) in PID at the Great North Children's Hospital and the Great Ormond Street Hospital in the United Kingdom. Keen to deepen knowledge in HSCT in PID, to apply the gained knowledge in Argentina, where immunologists are not involved in the HSCT process. Possess qualifications and skills for full professional development, showing a strong scientific curiosity.

Areas of interest: Inborn Errors of Immunity, HSCT.